

Karen Kessler, partner and cofounder of Evergreen Partners Inc., has been honored by NJBIZ magazine as one of New Jersey's 2010 Best 50 Women In Business. The ceremony offers recognition to women leaders who set positive examples through the building of both their communities and their businesses.

Karen, a New Jersey native, has held senior positions in both the public and private sectors of business, ranging from Vice President of Corporate Communications for the American Stock Exchange to Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Atlantic Health. Her current work at Evergreen Partners, recognized as a top public relations firm in the state for the past 5 years, involves advising many of NJ's major corporations and public leaders as a successful reputation management expert. Karen has been recognized twice by NJBIZ in 2010, including an additional recognition as a "Power 50" Member of a non-profit Board.
